

LAGOMES
unique elegance

TAILORING FOR MAN AND WOMAN

ABOUT US

LAGOMES was founded in 1986 by Alfredo da Silva Monteiro, tailor from a young age. The company, that started with 25 employees has grown, in a sustainable way, reinventing itself throughout its history. Today it is a reference company in tailoring for man and women, and it has 75 employees.

With a strong connection related to the quality of its suits for man, LAGOMES has been strengthening relations with women's jackets.

The company is diversifying its sources of income, that in 2015 reached a million euros. In 2016 LAGOMES has participated in its first fair, Modtissimo Airlines, that was its one-way ticket to a new era.

MISSION

Ensure the quality of excellence in the manufacture of our clothing, in a combination of classic tailoring and technological innovation, to design an elegant and practical final product.

VALUES

- Valorization and respect for the employees
- Social and Ambiental responsibility
- Quality, rigor and discipline
- Team spirit
- Honesty and transparency in the relationship with our customers and suppliers

VISION

We desire to be a referece in the tailoring sector and have the possibility to distinguish ourselves for our quality, innovation, professionalism and elegance.

TRADITION AND COMEFORT

The company is based in Vila Nova de Famalicão, north region of the country, where there is a strong tradition of textile.

We are a company that stands out by designing tailoring pieces for man and women, being one of our main focus the quality and comfort of the final product. We seek continuous growth and improvement, especially in exportation, where we want to achieve a 30% share.
